

My dear Sir Professor Gökbilgin!

Thank you very much for your greetings from Mainz and Bonn. I am very rejoiced about your thinking of me from time to time. -

In the meantime, I have got my films of Italy from the copy-establishment. These are wonderful remembers in colour upon 80 meters. I be in want of producing between 22/25 minutes. I am happy, the little scene with you, together with my wife at San Marco is funny. Next time it will give me an occupation in the evening. I must cut the film and to join scene by scene.

Before two weeks we had a little accident, my wife and I. We driven upon an oil-rut of a bus and tumbled down with our "Vespa". My wife got an important wound on her right foot. To day she is attempted to hobble. I am an upstart. I don't come to grief. An little excitement, but both of us, we are to be in luck.

Once again for you: You will meet Mrs. Boldt and Westermann at 7th november, 16 oo h in the "Alsterpavillon". The "Alsterpavillon" consist of several rooms. It is unprofitable for a stranger. To apply to the head-clerk.

You can be sure, I will be absorbed in thought by you. My wishes for you:

happy stay to Hamburg and happy hours of remembrance.

Yours sincerely

Gerd & Sigrid Jahnke

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read 'Gerd Jahnke', written in dark ink.