Prof. Tayyib Gökbilgin
Istanbul

Dear Professor Gökbilgin,

Our University is going to publish a volume of articles entitled: "Hungaro-Turcica. Studies in Honour of Julius Németh" on the occasion of Professor Julius Németh's 85th birthday next year. In this volume we intend to present the latest results of research on the languages and history of the Turkic peoples, as well as their Hungarian relations. We firmly hope that this aim set by our University will be promoted by your contribution which would make the volume more complete.

Awaiting your favourable answer, I remain,

Yours very truly

György Székely

N.B. The length of the papers has been limited to 15 type-written pages and the deadline for sending them is December 1. 1974. The articles will be published in English, French, German, Russian, or Turkish, according to the author's wish. We also ask that you would kindly render the technical terms occurring in the paper in Roman or Russian letters instead of Arabic letters.
