Dear Professor Gökbilgin,

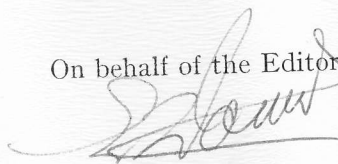

The Editorial Committee of the new edition of the Encyclopaedia of Islam invite you to contribute the article(s) mentioned overleaf.

The Encyclopaedia's standard transcriptions and its abbreviations for titles of books and periodicals are to be found in Volumes I and II of the New Edition, Leiden and London, 1960 and 1965; if this information is not available to you, it will be supplied on request.

Contributions should be typed, double-spaced between lines and with wide margins, on quarto paper (i.e., the same size as this invitation). It is preferable that the contributions should be submitted in two copies; and you are advised to retain a further copy in order to check the proofs when they are sent.

The Committee ask you to be good enough to return the enclosed card at your earliest convenience. You will understand that if we do not hear from you within six weeks we shall have to assume that you cannot undertake to contribute the article(s).

On behalf of the Editorial Committee,

E. VAN DONZEL.
